

Conference 2015

Zentrum für Konfliktforschung / Center for Conflict Studies

Films in Conflict / Films in Action: Palestine and Israel

6th of February 2015

Venue:

City Hall / Historischer Sitzungssaal im Rathaus Marburg

Programme

Cameras in Action
10.00 – 13.00

Evanna Ratner (Haifa): Dialogue through Cinema. The Contribution of Film-Production in a Bi-national Framework to Coexistence and Peace Education.

Film: „Two Sided Story“ (Tor Ben Mayor 2012)

Moderation: PD Dr. Johannes M. Becker & PD Dr. Anne Maximiliane Jäger-Gogoll

Lunch Break

The Camera from/in the Outside
14.00 – 17-00

Stefanie Landgraf & Johannes Gulde (Munich): he Palestine Israel Conflict in Educational Film Work in Germany – A Field Report (1982 – 2014)

Film: „Which Way to Palestine, Please“
(Landgraf/Gulde 2012)

Moderation: PD Dr. Johannes M. Becker & PD Dr. Anne Maximiliane Jäger-Gogoll

Speakers

Evanna Ratner (Haifa)

- University of Haifa
- Communication Coordinator at the Ministry for Education, Israel
- Communication coordinator Dialogue through cinema

Stefanie Landgraf (Munich)

- Communication Studies, Philosophy, History and Sociology at the University of Hamburg and LMU Munich
- Managing Partner Terra Media Corporation

Johannes Gulde (Munich)

- Movie author, director and cameraman
- Graduate of the University of Television and Film Munich (HFF)
- Media Education and Communication Studies at the LMU Munich
- Managing Partner Terra Media Corporation

Organizers

PD Dr. Johannes M. Becker

- Chief Executive Officer of the Centre for Conflict Studies, Marburg
- Privatdozent for Political Science at the University of Marburg

PD Dr. Anne Maximiliane Jäger-Gogoll

- Privatdozentin for recent German literary studies at the University of Siegen
- Lecturer at the Centre for Conflict Studies
- Lecturer for the International Summer University

Map: City Centre of Marburg

★ = City Hall